

Maria Kantirea

CURRICULUM VITAE

Associate Professor of Roman History, Aristote University of Thessaloniki.

kantirea@hist.auth.gr

Born in Athens, 1970.

Undergraduate studies in Athens (University of Athens), Postgraduate studies in Paris (Paris I).

Fields of Research

Greek and Latin Epigraphy, Topography and Monuments, History of Ancient Cyprus, Cult of the Monarch, Prosopography.

Studies

2003 PhD thesis in History, Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne (dir. Prof. M. Christol).

Title: Le culte impérial en Achaïe sous les Julio-claudiens et les Flaviens.

1995 DEA (Master) in Histoire et Civilisation de l'Antiquité, Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne.

1992 Bachelor of History, Archaeology and History of Arts, University of Athens.

Professional career

- 2019-today Associate Professor of Roman History.
Department of History and Archaeology, Aristote University of Thessaloniki.
- 2004-2018 Lecturer, Assistant, Associate Professor of Ancient History.
Department of History and Archaeology, University of Cyprus.
- 2003 Research Assistant.
Research Centre of Greek and Roman Antiquity, National Hellenic Research Foundation, Athens. Dir. Pr. A. Rizakis.
- 1998-1999 Researcher.
Foundation of the Hellenic World, Athens.
- 1997-1999 Member of the archaeological team of excavations at Oropos in Attica.
Archaeological Society. Dir. Pr. A. Mazarakis-Aimian.
- 1997-1998 Author for the Greek edition of the Oxford Children's Encyclopedia.
Patakis Publications, Athens.
- 1993-1998 Research Assistant in the capacity of scholarship holder.
Research Centre of Greek and Roman Antiquity, National Hellenic Research Foundation, Athens. Dir. Pr. A. Rizakis.
- 2002-2003 Freelance journalist (culture and tourism) for a newspaper in Paris.

Research Programmes

- Building Epigraphy in the Roman East (sponsored by the University of Cyprus).
- Inscriptiones Graecae (XV.2.1-4) with D. Summa as co-editor (<http://ig.bbaw.de/forschung-aktuell>).
- Les victimes de l' abolitio memoriae, online prosopographical database under the direction of S. Benoist, Ch. Hoët-van Cauwenberghe, S. Lefebvre et al. (Université Lille 3, Université de Dijon).

Member of the Société Française des Études du Monde Romain (SFER, Paris) and of the Society of Cyprus Studies (Nicosia).

Languages: Greek, French, English, German, Italian, Turkish (elementary knowledge).