

Basil C. Gounaris (Vasileios K. Gounaris) is Professor of Modern History (2009), former Director of the Laboratory for the Auxiliary Sciences of History (2018-21), former deputy chair (2017-19), former Chair (2019-21) at the Dept. of History and Archaeology, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (AUTH), former member of the AUTH Quality Assurance Unit (2012-2022).

He holds a BA (1983) in History and an MA (1985) in Modern and Medieval I History from AUTH and a DPhil in Modern History (1988) from Oxford University (St Antony's College), where he studied on a scholarship by the Ismene Fitch Charitable Trust (1985-88).

From 1990 to 2001 he was the Director of the Centre for Macedonian History & Documentation in Thessaloniki (Museum of the Macedonian Struggle). From 2000 to 2005 he taught Social and Economic History as Associate Professor at the Department for Balkan Studies (University of Western Macedonia). In 2009-10 he was Visiting Professor at King's College, University of London and in 2013 Senior Visiting Scholar (Onassis Foundation USA) at Yale, Princeton, Columbia, George Washington and York (Canada). From 2011 to 2015 he was the Dean of Humanities and member of the Governing Board at the International Hellenic University in Thessaloniki. Since 2012 he is Counselor of Education at the Hellenic Open University.

He served as full member (2014-2020) and as Deputy Chair (2018-2020) of the Sectorial Scientific Council (Arts and Humanities) of the National Council for Research and Innovation and member of the Advisory Committee of the Hellenic Foundation for Research and Innovation (2018-2022). He is also member of the editorial board of the journals: Clio (2004-), Journal of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies (2009-13), Südost-Forschungen (2015-), national representative and elected board vice-chair (2021-23) of the Observatory on History Teaching in Europe (Council of Europe). He is the single author of eight monographs, dozens of peer-reviewed articles and the editor of eight collective volumes. Two of his monographs have been awarded by the Academy of Athens. In 2019 he won an award of excellence for his contribution to the study of Humanities by the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. In 2022 he was elected research fellow (spring 2024) at the Seeger Center for Hellenic Studies (Princeton University).

His research interests include: (a) British politics/presence in the Southeastern Mediterranean from the 17th to the 19th century, (b) Greek historiography and the History of Ideas, (c) Nationalism, issues of identity, and anthropological approaches to History, (d) Social and Economic History of the Balkans, and (e) Environmental History.