

Dr. Dimitra Konstantinidou holds a degree in Theology (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, 1995), a MoA in Lifelong learning (University of Macedonia, 2015) and a PhD in architectural education (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, 2023). Her research field concerns European policies in lifelong learning and higher education, as well as the interaction of the environment and spatial planning with higher education and citizen's needs.

She is Special Teaching Staff at the School of Spatial Planning, AUTH. She has professional experience of more than 25 years in administrating research projects (more than 30) within various schemes of funding (Horizon, ELIDEK, National, ESPA, ERASMUS).

She participates in the following classes

L3-1 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY IN SOCIAL SCIENCES AND PLANNING

PS6-1 SPATIAL DEVELOPMENT PLANNING

PS9-1 EVALUATION OF DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES

T9-1 DIPLOMA PROJECT METHODOLOGY